By order of the Governor:

SAMUEL I. JOHNSON,

Brigadier General, The Adjutant General, Chief of Staff.

National Guard

three athletic officers of the battalions.

It was unanimously voted to have a military day on July Fourth, to which the Governor, Adjutant-General and other officials should be invited. The entire regiment will be brought together in Lihue for maneuvers, besides which there will be field sports, of a military character, and a big dinner. There will be parade and review of the regiment as a whole, and the program will conclude with some sort of "whoop-er-up" in the evening.

Colonel Broadbent appointed the following committees on the Fourth of July affair:

General and Finance—Lt. Colonel L. D. Timmons and Majors Wm. Henry Rice, Walter D. McBryde, Benjamin D. Baldwin and F. L. Putman.

Sports, field management and prizes—Captains F. C. Morrow, C. Maser, G. T. Greig, E. W. Carden and Chas. F. Dillingham. Commissariat—Captains Chas. A. Rice, J. H. Moragne, W. O. Crowell, Richard N. Oliver, E. W. Kopke and A. D. Hills.

Transportation—Captains Chas. H. Wilcox, Wallace M. Cooper, H. S. Truscott, G. P. Wilcox and H. F. Hadfield.

The matter of moving the troops on July Fourth will be quite a problem, and came in for a good deal of discussion. It is expected that by that time the regiment will contain something like 1,200 men, of which 900 will have to be transported to and from Lihue. There is a possibility that railway line, may be utilized from Waimea to a point between Koloa and Lihue. It is conceded that this scheme is well worth trying, if for no other reason than to demonstrate its practicability in case of military need. The railways are not equipped with Pullman sleepers exactly, but they have pulled off some creditable excursions in the past.
